A Brief Profile

Administrative
Building of BIM,
Dhaka Campus

The origin of what today is known as the Bangladesh Institute of Management (BIM) can be traced back to 1961 when its precursor, the Management Development Centre, East Pakistan, was established. It is the outcome of a tripartite project known as ‘East Pakistan Management Development, Supervisory and Instructor Training Centre’. To establish this project, a plan of operation was signed by the then Government of Pakistan, the United Nations and ILO in 1960. The project came into being on 1-1-1961 under the administrative control of the Ministry of Health, Labour and Social Welfare (Labour and Social Welfare Division) of the then Central Government of Pakistan which was subsequently transferred to the Provincial Government of East Pakistan in December 1963.

In 1970, the East Pakistan Government Educational and Training Institutions Ordinance, 1961 (East Pakistan Ordinance No. XXVI of 1961) was made applicable for Management Development Centre with effect from 1-7-1970 thereby providing the centre with autonomous status.

In 1966, apart from offering short term, subject specific training programmes, a specialized, year-long Post Graduate Diploma in Personnel Management was introduced by the Centre.

After the liberation of the country in 1971, the institute was vested with the responsibility of building up human resources of the newly independent country. Between 1972—75, the public sector was the predominant sector of the economy and the majority of the clients of the institute were drawn from the public sector enterprises. The institute was further involved in providing training to the members of what was proposed to be the Industrial Management Service (IMS).

With gradual shift in development focus and liberalization of the economy from around 1975, there was distinct shift in focus of the activities of BIM. The client base also changed from a predominantly public sector to a mix of public and private sector. During the late 70’s to mid 80’s, the institute was recipient of major Technical Assistance Projects, which resulted in a major transformation of the institute. It became a hub of management training with participants being drawn from public, private and NGOs sectors. In the year 1981, another year long, Post Graduate Diploma in Industrial Management was introduced.

In the early 90’s, the then Bangladesh Management Development Centre (BMDC) was faced with stiff competition in the field of short, subject specific training programmes. The number of participants per course was dwindling as were the number of courses.

Vision & Mission Statement

“Bangladesh Institute of Management (BIM) exists to improve management capacity building of the stakeholders for a prosperous Bangladesh.”

“Our mission is to be a leading center of excellence for management development through a committed professional team.”

Against this backdrop, the BMDC took a far-reaching strategic decision to introduce a number of year long, Post-Graduate Diploma (PGD) courses. Three such academic programmes— PGD in Marketing Management, PGD in Financial Management, PGD in Computer Science were introduced. Response to these new diploma programmes, particularly for computer science, was encouraging.

During late nineties, the BMDC started the process of restructuring itself so as to enable it to offer academic programmes designed to create professionals. It was in that light the Bangladesh Management Development Centre (BMDC) was converted into an institute-the Bangladesh Institute of Management (BIM) on August 04, 1997.

In 2008 considering the importance of RMG sector for the well being of Bangladesh economy , a 6 month long diploma in social compliance was introduced by the Institute.

The initiative is further enhanced by introducing another specialized Diploma in Productivity and Quality Management in the current year. Both the programmes were launched in cooperation with German International Cooperation (GIZ).

While Training Research and Consultancy are the three mandated activities of BIM; the major thrust during the last decade has been on training and Post Graduate Diploma Programs.

c. Publication

'Management Development', a quarterly journal carrying articles and research findings of eminent national and international teachers and professionals, was a regular publication of BIM till 1985.
